

Land Store

When customer goes to the Land Store shopping cart the system looks up the state of the customer's account and displays messaging.
If the customer is domestic, system displays domestic account status.

Use Case: Customer has purchased land before.

Shopping cart displays previously used and authed method for confirmation

Gisland Cloud

Land Store

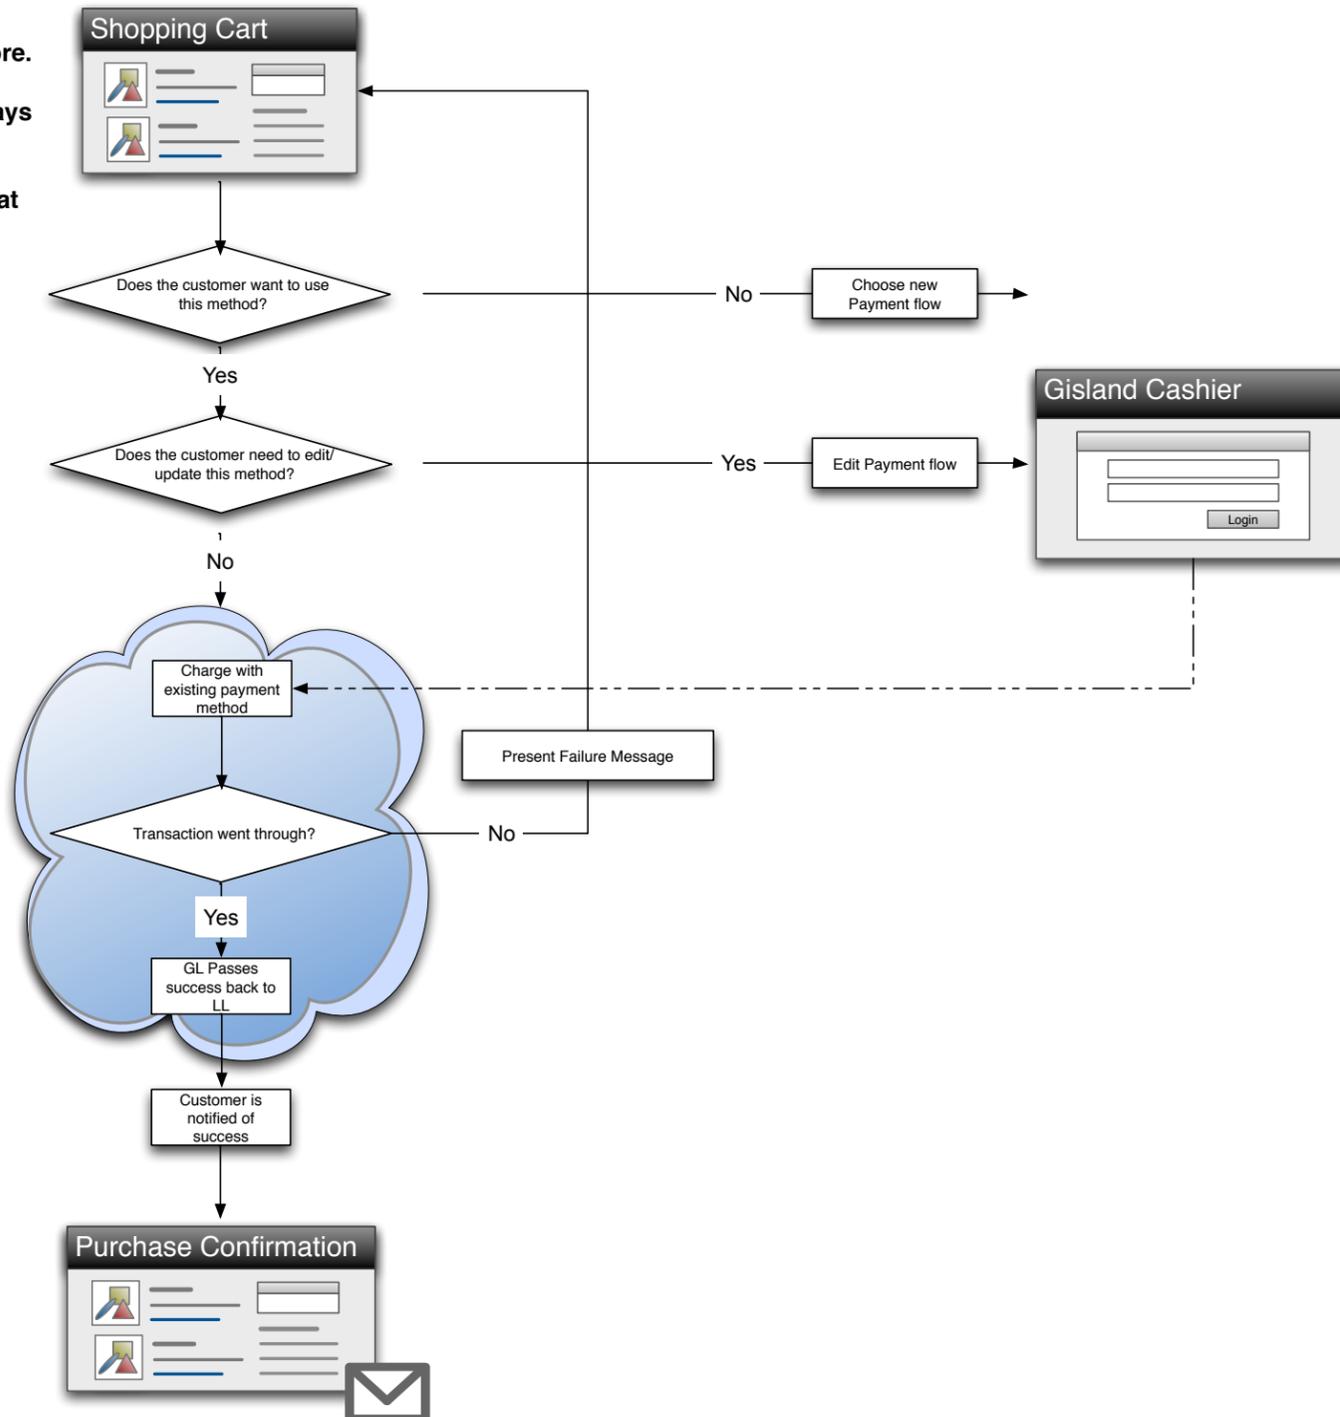

When customer goes to the Land Store shopping cart the system looks up the state of the customer's account and displays messaging.

If the customer is domestic, system displays domestic account status.

Customer had purchased land before.

Shopping cart displays previously used and authed method and notifies customer that payment method needs updating.

System looks up to see if payment method is current

Gisland Cloud

Land Store

When customer goes to the Land Store shopping cart the system looks up the state of the customer's account and displays messaging.

If the customer is domestic, system displays domestic account status.

System looks up to see if there is another recurring method. If yes, then it displays that choice and the choice to add a new method.

If there is no other recurring method, system passes customer to Gisland.

At this point all Land Store purchases need a recurring billing method on file.

Use Case: Customer has reoccurring payment method on file (has purchased Premium or some other product using a credit card)

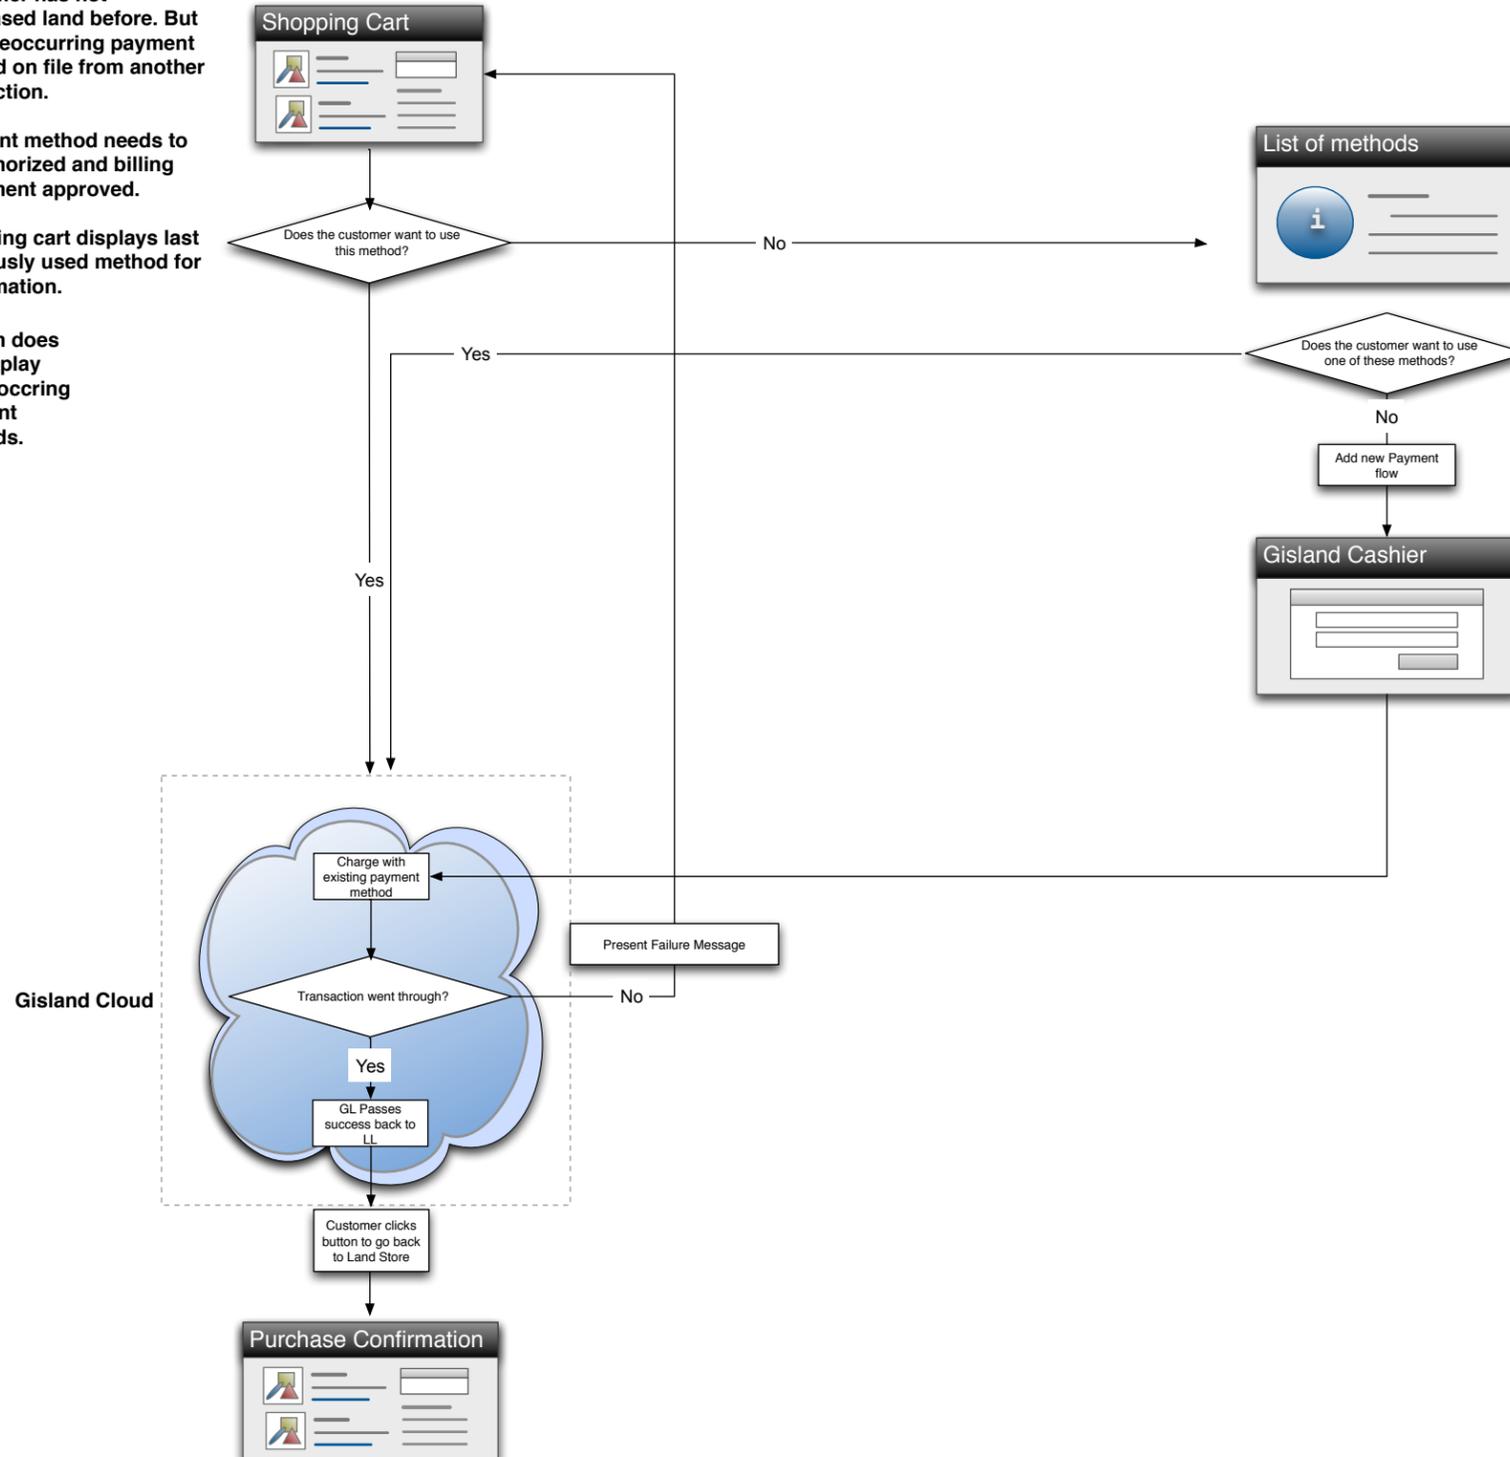

Customer has not purchased land before. But has a reoccurring payment method on file from another transaction.

Payment method needs to be authorized and billing agreement approved.

Shopping cart displays last previously used method for confirmation.

System does not display non-reoccurring payment methods.

System displays Billing Agreement before passing to Gizland. (Gizland hits card at the end of the Cashier process)

Land Store

When customer goes to the Land Store shopping cart the system looks up the state of the customer's account and displays messaging.

If the customer is domestic, system displays domestic account status.

Use Case: Customer has no recurring payment method on file (one-time payment methods like Western Union do not show)

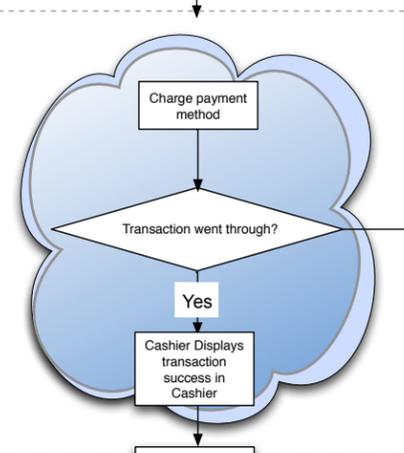

Customer has not purchased any recurring item before.

Shopping cart displays text inviting user to add a payment method.

Present Failure Message

Gisland Cloud

Customer clicks button to go back to Land Store

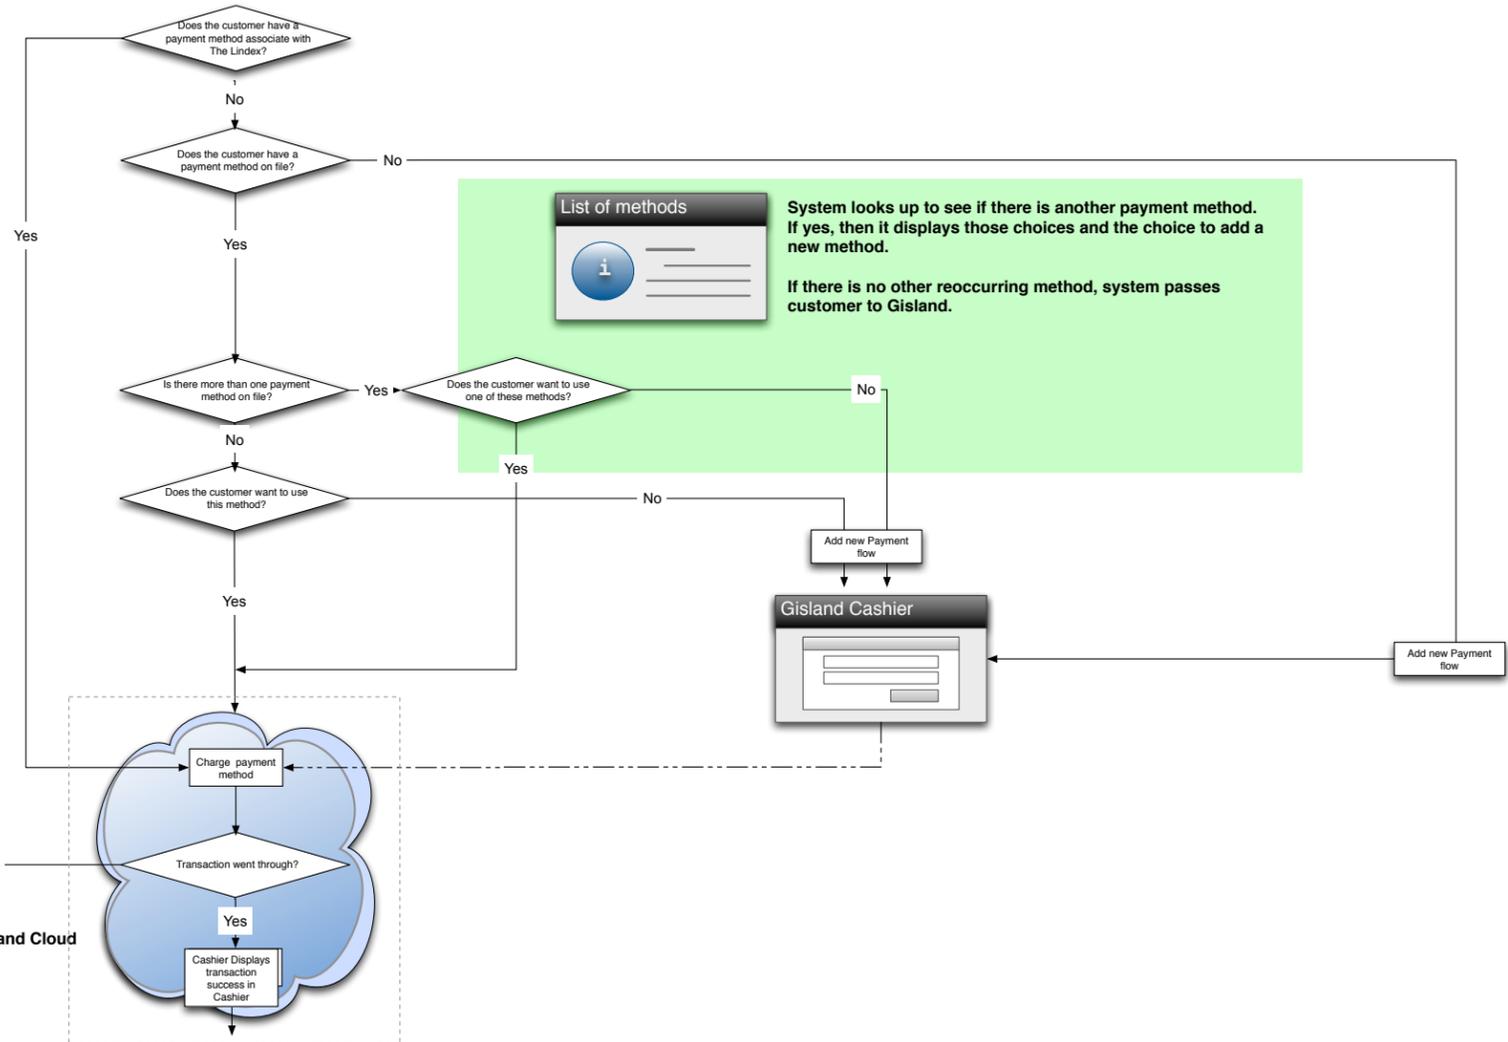

Lindex

Lindex Order Form Customer Places Lindex Order.
System Detects if Customer is International.

Lindex Order Form
Light Box message display.

Right now the system asks user to sign in again to process a linden purchase. Would this system require relog, and when?

List of methods
System looks up to see if there is another payment method. If yes, then it displays those choices and the choice to add a new method.
If there is no other reoccurring method, system passes customer to Gisland.

Customer clicks button to go back to Lindex

Does this happen in the cashier?
Is it a new payment method?

Yes

Does the customer want to use this method for future Lindex Purchases?

Yes: Customer can edit this in preferences

No: Customer will have to choose payment method next time.

Purchase Confirmation
Light Box message display.

If this is a new payment method the Customer sees a message asking them if the system can use this method for future Lindex Purchases.

Land Store

When customer signs up for Premium, the system looks up the state of the customer's account and displays messaging.
If the customer is domestic, system displays domestic account status.

Does the customer have a payment method associate with Premium Account?

No

Does the customer have a payment method on file?

No

Yes

Are any of the Payment methods reoccurring?

No

Yes

Display Last Reoccurring payment method used

Yes

Does the customer want to use this method?

No

Yes

Is there more than one reoccurring payment method on file?

Yes

No

Does the customer want to use one of these methods?

Yes

No

Add new Payment flow

Add new Payment flow

Present Failure Message

Gisland Cloud

Charge payment method

Transaction went through?

Yes

GL Passes success back to LL

Customer is notified of success

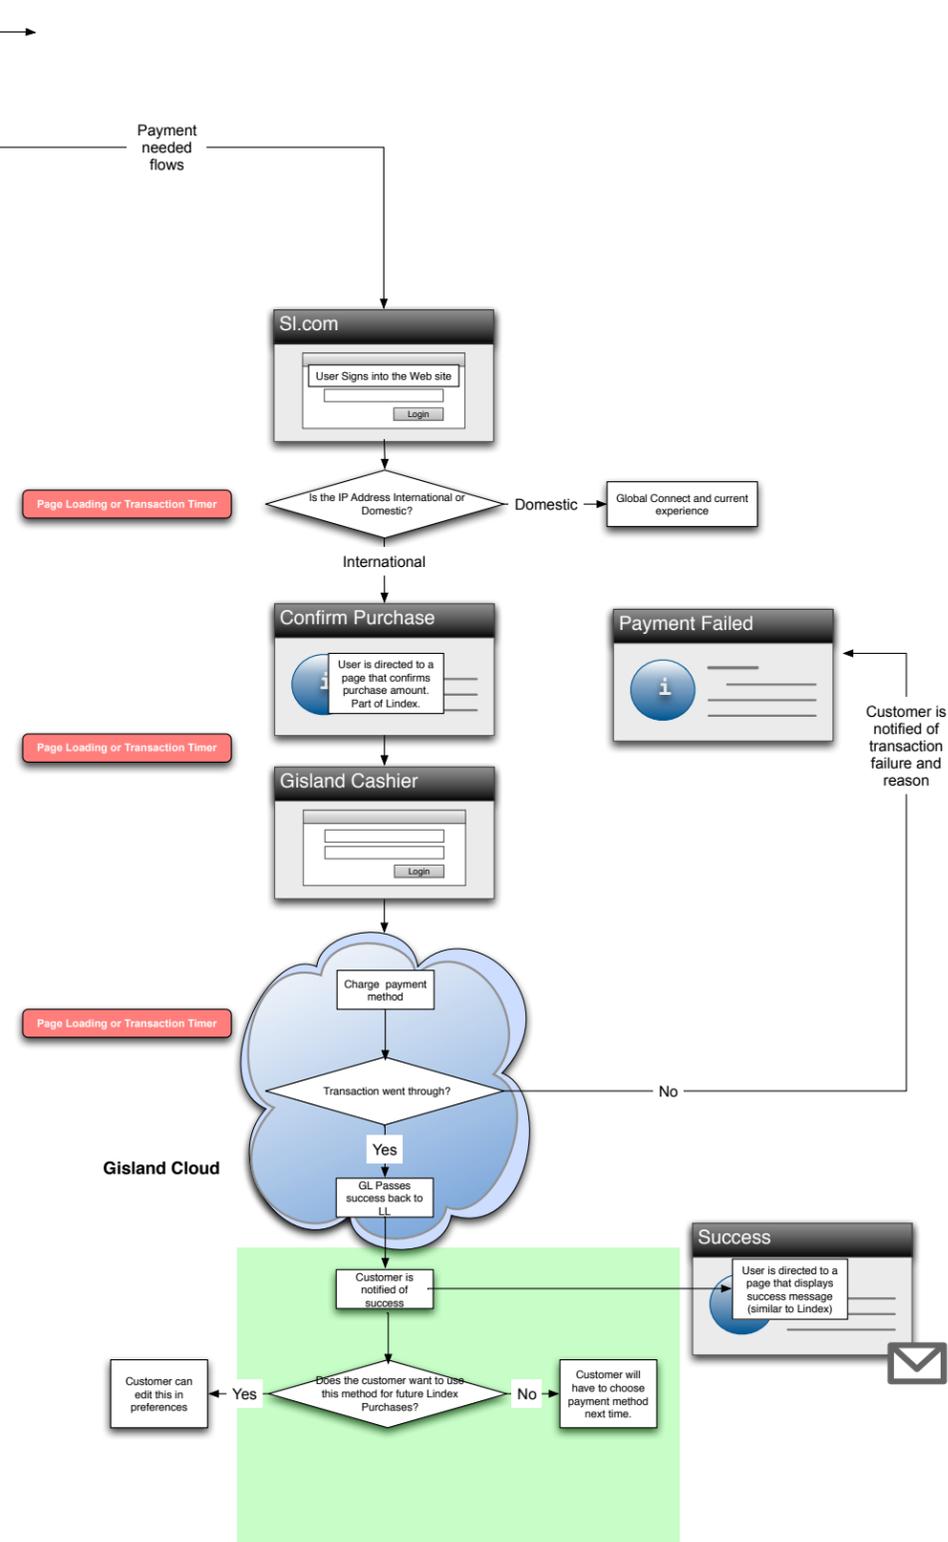

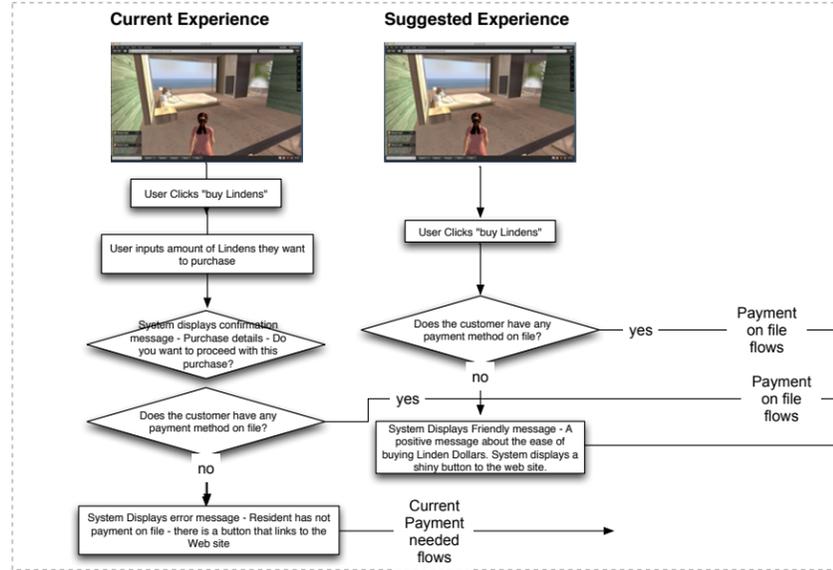

Purchase Confirmation

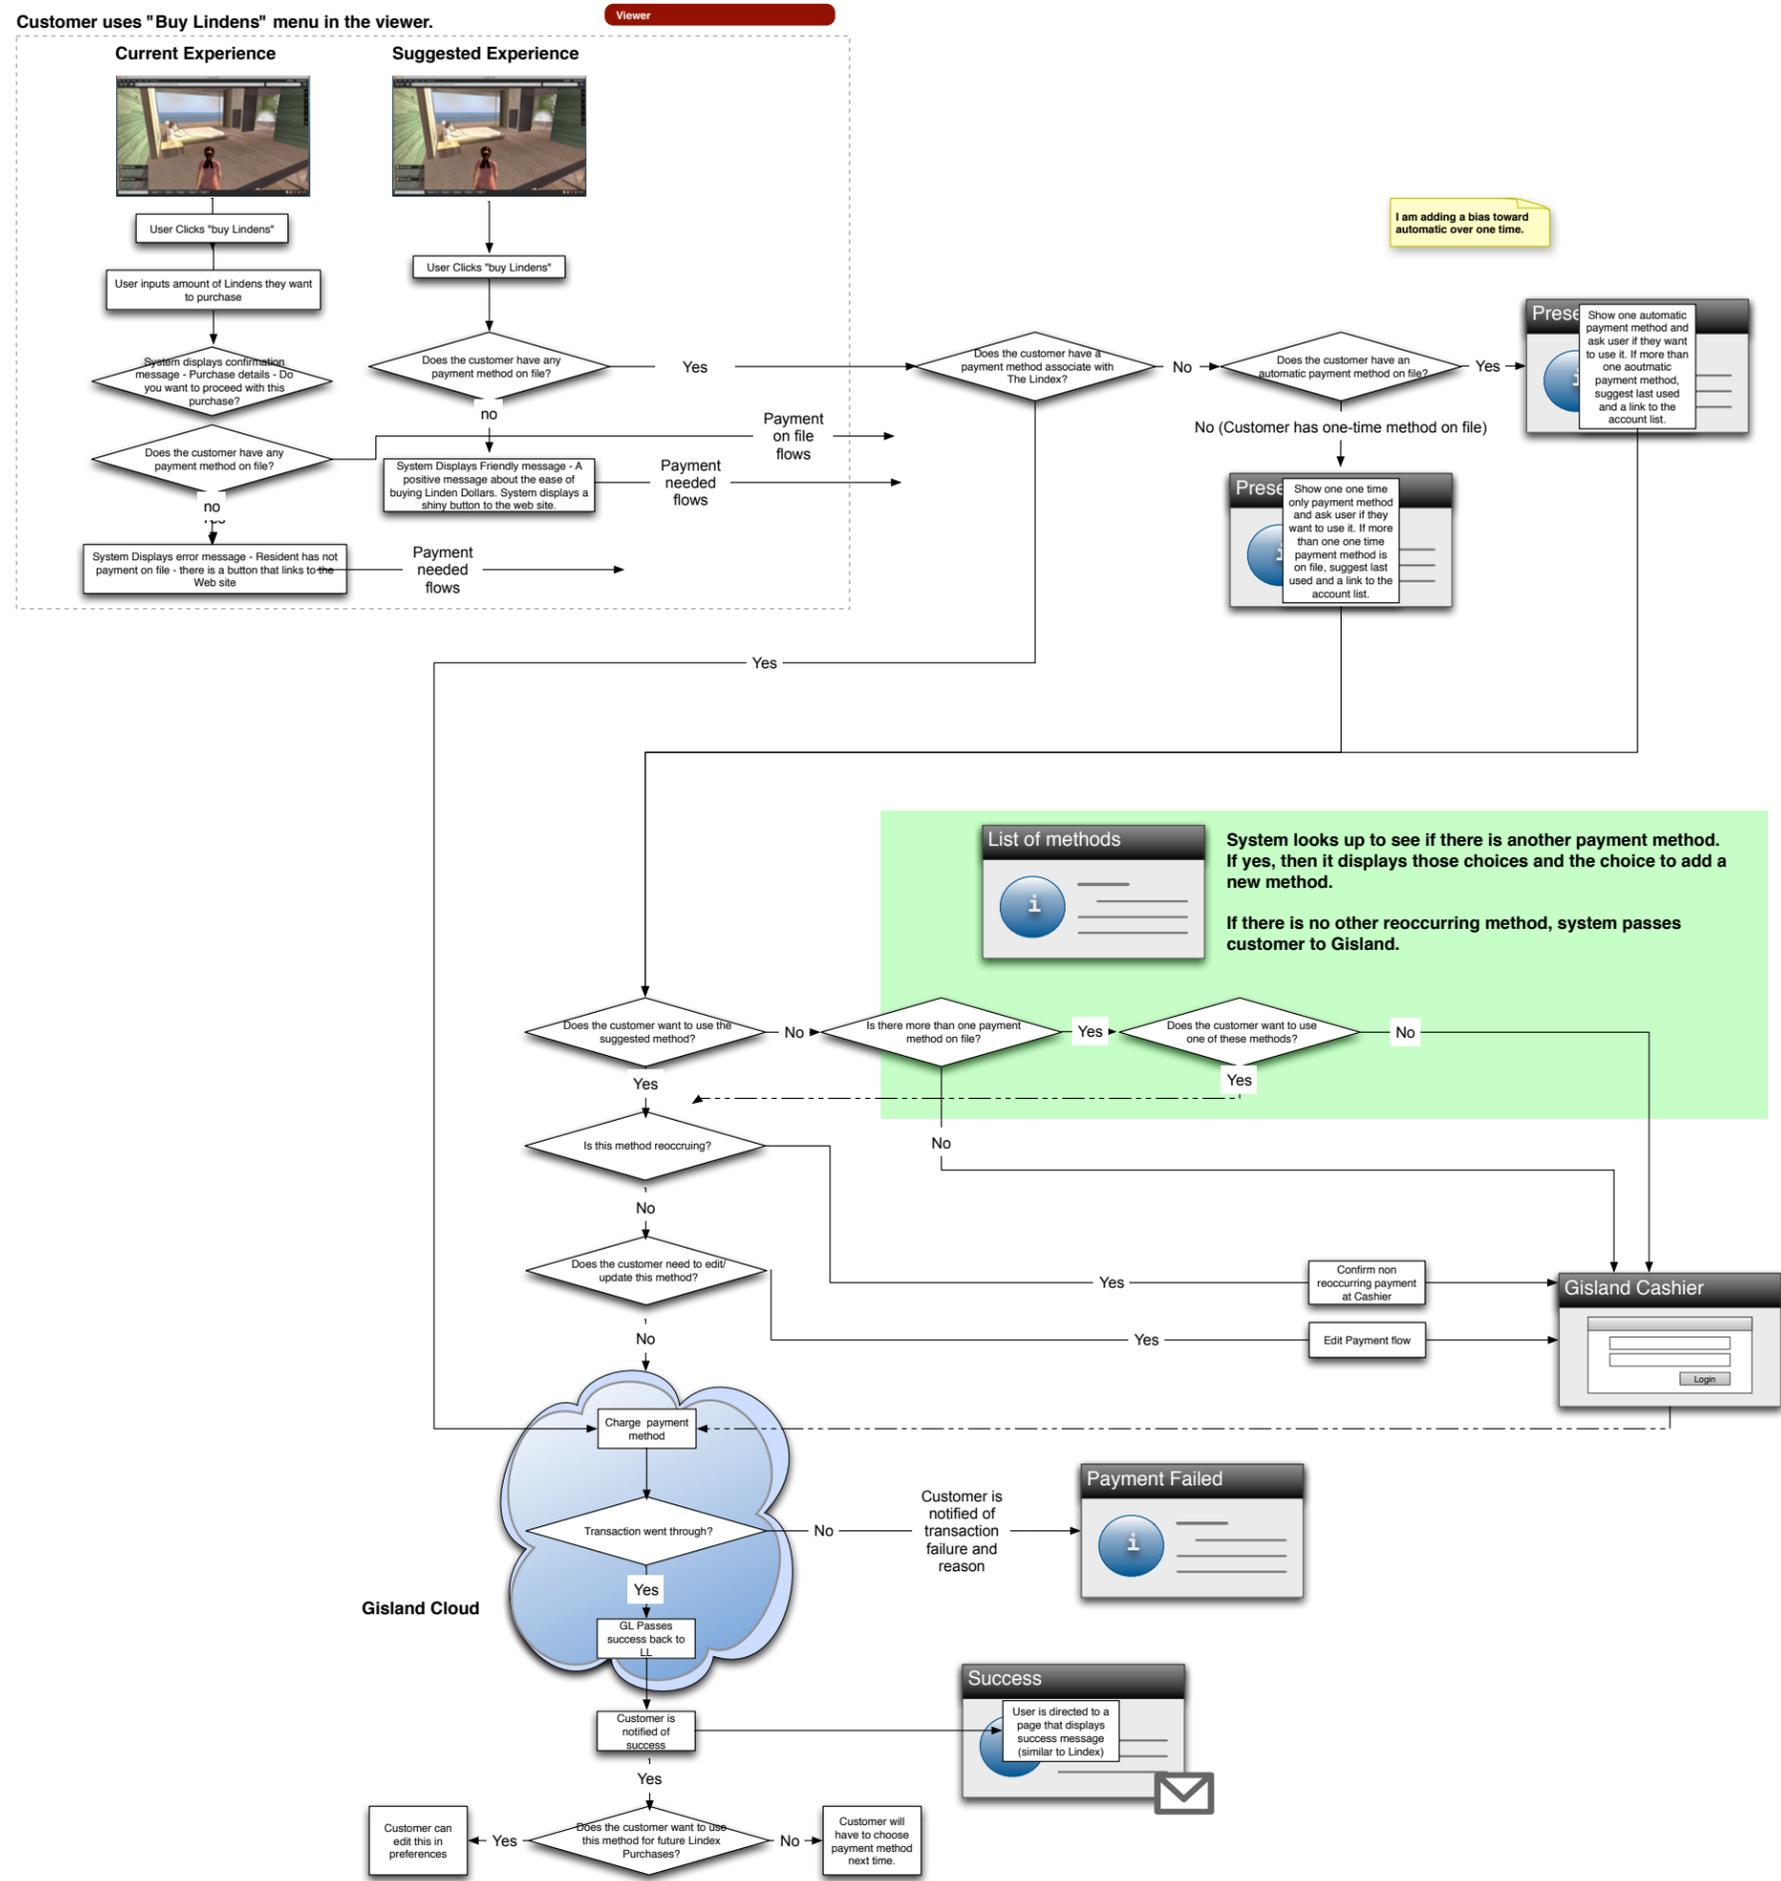

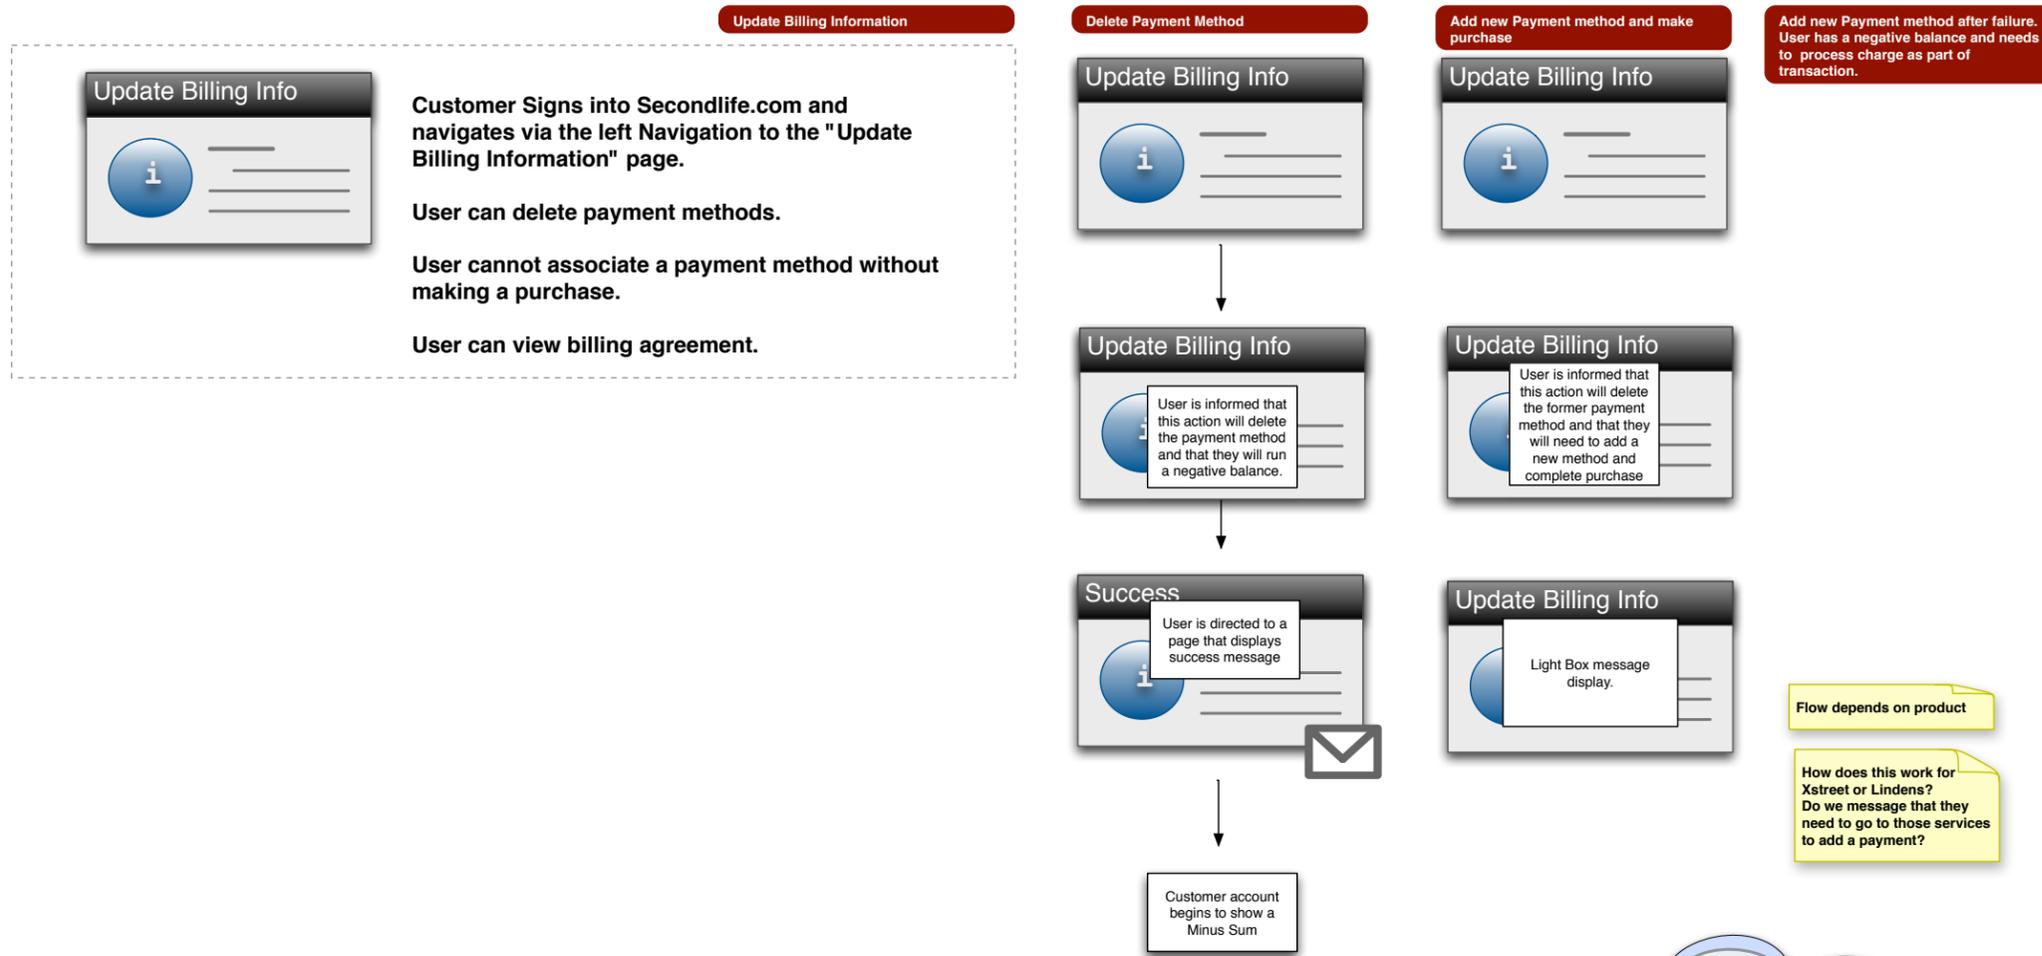

System looks up to see if there is another payment method. If yes, then it displays those choices and the choice to add a new method.
If there is no other reoccurring method, system passes customer to Gisland.

Customer uses "Buy Lindens" menu in the viewer.

Viewer

Gisland Cloud

